

INVASIVE

English holly

Ilex aquifolium

- My berries are toxic to both humans and pets.
- You will often see me in holiday decorations.
- Birds love to eat my berries and they spread my seeds into forests, where I quickly grow and takeover, displacing native trees and shrubs.