

INVASIVE

Eurasian collared dove

Streptopelia decaocto

- I am named for the black collar on the back of my neck.
- I have spread quickly across North America since 1982, when I was released from a pet store in the Bahamas.
- Listen for my repetitive cooing song.