

INVASIVE

Scentless chamomile

Tripleurospermum inodorum

- I am in the daisy family. You can tell me apart from others by my frilly, carrot-like leaves.
- My seeds float easily, allowing me to spread along lakes and rivers.
- I grow well in both dry, poor quality soils and moist aquatic areas, making it easy for me to crowd out other plants.