

INVASIVE

Yellow floating heart

Nymphoides peltata

- I grow in dense mats, preventing waterflow and disturbing sensitive habitat.
- My leaves look similar to a water lily, but my yellow flower grows tall above the water.
- I can spread from garden ponds to wetlands, so please don't plant me and report me if found!