

INVASIVE

Eurasian watermilfoil

Myriophyllum spicatum

- I'm an aquatic plant that has been let loose from aquariums
- When I take over the water, I create dense stands that prevent people from swimming and boating. I also create sluggish water that attracts mosquitos.
- I'm very hard to get rid of and can spread by my roots, seeds, buds, and stem fragments.